About the Author

Eileen Heinze has been professionally involved in long-term and hospice care as a director of nursing, teacher and, currently, as the executive director of a not-for-profit organization responsible for nursing assistant competency evaluation. She has written and presented educational programs for state and federally funded agencies that include nursing assistant training and preparation for competency evaluation especially designed to meet the needs of persons with disadvantages and disabilities. She established curriculum standards and resident care procedures to improve uniformity and objectivity in competency evaluation. She also serves on several community boards and advisory committees.
