PAPER-BASED TESTS ARE NO LONGER AVAILABLE

IEP APPROVED TESTING ONLY - PAPER-BASED COMPETENCY EXAM ONLY AVAILABLE FOR SPECIAL ACCOMMODATIONS TESTING WITH APPROVED INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION PLAN (IEP)

- Paper-based CNA testing is only available for individuals who have an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) that requires a special accommodation that specifically states that the individual must be provided a paper-based exam. Or if there is an accommodation that cannot be currently provided in the computer-based test environment. To qualify for an IEP exam, a student must be determined to have an intellectual disability according to the American's with Disabilities Act (ADA) or Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA). A written request for specific special accommodations from a qualified disability support person along with documentation of a learning disability (IEP) are needed in order to provide accommodations for testing due to a learning disability. Requests must be sent to the Nurse Aide Testline

Click “Add to Cart $85.00” in the Computer-Based exam window. No fees will be paid until you choose a test date. THERE ARE NO PAPER BASED TESTS AVAILABLE unless you have an IEP specifically stating you have a paper-based test accommodation.
